LOOKBOOK SPRING/SUMMER 2022

CHRISTOPHER HUBBARD

Principal, Creative Director

Providing an intimate design experience clients genuinely admire, Christopher Hubbard has established an astounding in-house design sequence based on his expansive 25-year career in design. Sought after for his expertly-tailored collections, Christopher diligently brought his vision for timeless textiles and bespoke furniture to life.

In 2015, Christopher began Hubbard Design Group, a comprehensive design studio offering a full spectrum of in-house design services. Utilizing his design degree, Christopher crafted a made-to-order, bespoke collection of furniture for the industry and his insightful clientele. Two years later when he began offering his curated collection of textiles to designers, Christopher's business expanded rapidly. Traveling door-to-door with his innovative collections, he cemented his reputation for the sales experience his customers cherished along the way. Today, Hubbard Design Group's collections are represented through luxury designer showrooms and a professional trade network located throughout North America.

With a mission to give its nationwide client-base high-design without compromise, Hubbard Design Group combines timeless design with the utmost attention to detail, leaving each project exceedingly examined for exceptional quality. Catering to clients' deepest passions and desires, Hubbard Design Group provides an equal contribution of high-quality luxury goods and superior customer service with efficiency at its forefront. Offering a specialized assortment of outstanding services, Hubbard Design Group is a beacon of the Chicago design landscape.

GRANDE LOUNGE

A sister to the Grande sofa, the Grande Lounge showcases beautiful welt detailing and octagonal-shaped legs consistent throughout the Grande collection. With a down feather fill throughout, the Grande offers a high level of formal elegance true to its name.

GULL

Playing on the idea of negative space, the Gull provides a posh ambiance and pleasurable dining experience. With taut upholstery and the option for an oak or walnut frame, the lofty curves of the Gull dining chair intrigue and assure relaxation.

CAMBRE

With a low-floating, curvaceous silhouette, the Cambre sofa draws influence from early mod-motifs. A rounded back provides plenty of space for flowing conversation, making the Cambre a favorable piece for exuberant entertaining.

ALLO BENCH

Floating over legs of luminous acrylic and robust wood, the lavish Allo Bench shines in the Hubbard Design collection. With its grand scale and slim proportions, the Allo Bench is absolutely adaptable and provides room for plenty of seating.

BÁYA

Show-stopping in size and stature, the Báya dining table takes center stage. Its brass beveled legs and smooth wood surface make it the superb choice for all lavish gatherings.

CLARA

Solid acrylic legs and twin brass beams give an unexpected twist to the time-honored dining table. A striking vision, the Clara is a stand-out awaiting the next cocktail hour or dinner party to positively shine.

DOPPIO

Striking curves and a vibrant tone define the Doppio table. With bold brass accents and an ultra-modern shapely silhouette, the Doppio is certain to turn heads.

COLONY TABLE

Discover fascinating forms and modern elements in the Colony collection. The Colony table and the Colony Bar are both geometric and expressive, making them a special addition to any elaborate gathering.

THISTLE

Part of the Thistle collection, the Thistle Grande attracts influence from nature. With full, plump legs and a dense wood composition, the Thistle Grande is ripe for entertaining.

LAKE POINT

Handsomely carved legs and a delicate, dark polished glass top define the Lake Point collection.

As a partner to the Lake Point Dining table, the original Lake Point table combines innovative, shapely contours with thoughtfully highlighted accents, adding an extra dose of stylish sophistication.

TRIBUS

A quiet elegance, the Tribus takes prominent place in any interior. This nuanced dining table attains a modern simplicity that is both high-style and entirely unmatched in everlasting design.

SCARLETT

Two is always better than one. Crafted with tight upholstery and an oak frame, Scarlett introduces a fresh take on the quintessential bunk bed -- perfect for any kid-friendly space.

TEXTILES

In his exemplary textile collection, Christopher Hubbard curates an array of extravagant fabrics influenced by the landscapes of our ever-evolving world.

From the finest wools of Scotland to the most exquisite mohairs of Belgium, Hubbard Textiles transports earth's most illustrious landmarks to design.

With collections characterized by opulent fibers and subtle colorways, sophistication and first-class luxury are never out of reach.

01 Payne

Acres of gardens and broad stone facades mark the Estate collection. With a virgin wool, cotton and alpaca composition, Estate is a superior textile that feels supple to the touch. Perfect for upholstery, Estate will certainly add enduring elegance to any residential space.

Whether it's the warmth found wrapped in a blanket or the drizzly countryside, Lush depicts the subtle incandescence found throughout a cool cottage day. With a snug 100% wool mohair composition, the lavish texture acts as the liaison between elevated taste and intimate design.

01 Quartz

Fascinated by parallel stripes of archaic minerals booming on a cliff face, the Strata collection represents the unwavering fortitude of a united quarry. Linear bands of limestone and quartz can be found replicated in the textile's linen, cotton and viscose weave, making it a forceful fabric.

Towering mountain ranges and jagged, sculptural cliff sides sparked the inspiration for the Elevation collection. Glacial tones of blue and grey dominate the three colorways with a refined textured weave, proving the elevation collection is unquestionably reaching new heights.
